Students visiting Gitex Shopper 2015 next week can win university scholarships worth Dh280,000 by submitting their best report cards.

Thanks to an initiative launched by Amity University, scholarships will be offered every day at the consumer electronics show running from 3-10 October at Dubai World Trade Centre (DWTC).

Awarding the scholarships - each worth Dh35,000 and applicable to any Bachelor's Degree or Master's Degree offered by the University, successful candidates are those with the highest marks on their report card submitted each day of the event.

Eligibility is open to all students who have passed Grade 11, and who visit Gitex Shopper with a special promotional student ticket priced at Dh10.

Candidates are asked to complete an entry form at the Amity University stall at Gitex Shopper and submit their report cards either in hardcopy or via email, with winners to be notified post event after marks are verified by the admissions team at Amity University Dubai.

The Amity Education Group is a private non-profit education group with a total of five universities, 13 institution campuses in India and nine international campuses. It has instituted over 125 scholarships on meritorious, Emirati, gender and financial grounds and focuses largely on the commitment of nurturing talent through world class education.

Based out of Dubai International Academic City, Amity University Dubai offers Bachelor's Degrees in Business Administration, Arts, Science, Technology and Architecture with a variety of majors, which are internationally recognised.
