Students visiting GITEX Shopper Spring 2015 could be in the running to win one of four freshman scholarships being awarded by Amity University Dubai during the region's largest consumer electronics show.

Any student under the age of 20 who is currently in or has completed Grade 12 and has purchased an entry ticket is eligible to apply. To enter, students must visit the Amity pavilion at the show, complete a registration form and provide details of their Grade 11 marks by the end of the show.

Candidates with the highest marks at the end of each day will win the scholarships, applicable to any Bachelor's degree and valid for the first year of the program.

Manjot Sandhu, General Manager –Marketing, Amity Middle East, said: “Amity University Dubai is proud to be a pioneer in the education space, and to partner with GITEX Shopper Spring once again. Amity's focus on ground-breaking innovations in science and new technology drives our support of technology initiatives in the region, and we are delighted to further strengthen our partnership in its second successful year with GITEX Shopper.”

Based out of Dubai International Academic City, Amity University Dubai offers Bachelor's Degrees in Business Administration, Arts, Science, Technology and Architecture with a variety of majors, which are internationally recognised.

GITEX Shopper Spring 2015 runs until 4 April and opens from 11:00am –11:00pm every day.
